

I recently purchased an XM satellite unit for my automobile and immediately signed up for XM service. I am totally pleased with the service and variety of music and news that I have at my fingertips. I no longer have to hear bad music, bad DJs, vulgar language and double entendres, and the constant hounding of peddlers barking their wares over the air waves. Hurrah!! for satellite radio, so long overdue.

Louis Mazar